Examiner's Amendment:

An Examiner's Amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 C.F.R. § 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the Issue Fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given by Mr. Allen via a telephone interview on November 23, 2007.

The specification has been amended as follows:

In page 1, paragraph 1, line 3, after "by the same inventors and with the same title," inserting "--now U.S. patent No. 6,704,769,--.

In the claims:

the claims are amended below

1-8. (cancelled).

9. (currently amended) A multimedia conferencing device comprising:

a network interface for coupling with at least one multimedia conferencing device in a conference;

Art Unit: 2154

a switch coupled to the network interface, wherein the switch receiving one or more media streams from one or more sources, each switch responsive to a control signal for selecting one or more of media streams to output as switched outputs; ~~and~~

a policy manager coupled to the switch, wherein the policy manager generates the control signal for the switch according to a predetermined policy that depends at least in part on one or more labels associated with the one or more media streams and indicating a role of the one or more media streams; and a capability manager coupled to the policy manager, wherein the capability manager negotiates the communication capability with the coupled multimedia conference device.

10. (original) The multimedia conferencing device in Claim 9, wherein the policy includes assigning hierarchical roles to streams, wherein the hierarchy of roles are indicated by labels in the media streams.

11. (original) The multimedia conferencing device in Claim 9, wherein the switched outputs include at least people stream and content stream.

Art Unit: 2154

12. (original) The multimedia conferencing device in Claim 11, wherein the people stream is displayed on a people display; and wherein the content stream is displayed on a content display.

13. (cancelled)

14. (currently amended) The multimedia conferencing device in Claim 9, wherein the capability manager negotiates the supported levels of hierarchy of roles and collapses the unsupported levels of roles to the lowest supported level.

15. (currently amended) The multimedia conferencing device in Claim 9, further comprising:

a token manager coupled to the capability manager, wherein each token represents the source of a role, wherein the token manager maintains the identity of the exclusive holder of the token within the conference.

16. (original) The multimedia conferencing device in Claim 9, further comprising:

a converter coupled to the network interface, wherein the converter is configured to detect a first role signal of a received media stream, convert the first role signal into a second role signal for the media stream, and retransmit the media stream.

17. (original) The multimedia conferencing device in Claim 9, further comprising:

a microphone, a camera, a speaker and a first video display, all of which are coupled to the switch.

18. (original) The multimedia conferencing device in Claim 17, wherein a video stream of a first role is displayed on a first section of the first video display; and wherein a video stream of a second role is displayed on a second section of the first video display.

19. (original) The multimedia conferencing device in Claim 17, further comprising:

a second video display;

wherein a video stream of a first role is displayed on the first video display; and wherein a video stream of a second role is displayed on the second video display.

20. (new) A multimedia conferencing device comprising:

Art Unit: 2154

a network interface for coupling with at least one multimedia conferencing device in a conference;

a switch coupled to the network interface, wherein the switch receiving one or more media streams from one or more sources, each switch responsive to a control signal for selecting one or more of media streams to output as switched outputs;

a policy manager coupled to the switch, wherein the policy manager generates the control signal for the switch according to a predetermined policy that depends at least in part on one or more labels associated with the one or more media streams and indicating a role of the one or more media streams; and a converter coupled to the network interface, wherein the converter is configured to:

detect a first role signal of a received media stream; convert the first role signal into a second role signal for the media stream; and retransmit the media stream.

21. (new) The multimedia conferencing device in Claim 20, wherein the policy includes assigning hierarchical roles to streams, wherein the hierarchy of roles are indicated by labels in the media streams.

Art Unit: 2154

22. (new) The multimedia conferencing device in Claim 20 wherein the switched outputs include at least people stream and content stream.

23. (new) The multimedia conferencing device in Claim 22, wherein the people stream is displayed on a people display; and wherein the content stream is displayed on a content display.

24. (new) The multimedia conferencing device in Claim 20, further comprising:

a microphone, a camera, a speaker and a first video display, all of which are coupled to the switch.

25. (new) The multimedia conferencing device in Claim 24, wherein a video stream of a first role is displayed on a first section of the first video display; and

wherein a video stream of a second role is displayed on a second section of the first video display.

26. (new) The multimedia conferencing device in Claim 24, further comprising:

a second video display;

Art Unit: 2154

wherein a video stream of a first role is displayed on the first video display; and wherein a video stream of a second role is displayed on the second video display.
